AT OLD GEORGETOWN

The Seventy-Ninth Annual Commencement of the University.

THE DIFFERENT DEGREES CONFERRED

Important Exercises Held and Distinguished Guests Entertained.

THE STUDENTS' COMMITTEES

The seventy-ninth annual commencement of Georgetown University was held this morning in the Gaston Memorial Hall, beginning at 10 o'clock. The large hall was prettily decorated in the national colors. while the railing of the gallery was decorated with bunting of blue and gray color, representing the college colors. At either end of the gallery silk American flags were fastened in position. The stage was also prettily decorated. Two large flags formed the top decorations, while beneath came the blue and gray bunting. The centerpiece was decorated in the same colored bunting The place was packed and jammed with people, a crowd usual to the commencement exercises of Georgetown, among which were many of the prominent people of this city many of the prominent people of this city and elsewhere. The seating capacity was taxed, and the gallery was packed with humanity. The later comers were forced to remain out in the hallway and stand all through the exercises. Fortunately, the weather was cool enough to keep the heat from being oppressive.

Most of the invited guests were seated upon the stage, and the number there was very large. Cardinal Gibbons was seated in the center, dressed in robes of his office. To his right was seated Arch-bishop Ryan of Philadelphia, in his purple robes. To the left of the cardinal, Rev. J. Haven Richards, the rector of the university. The members of the senior class and the members of the alumni to receive the degrees occupied the north end of the stage. The scuth half of the stage was occupied by a large number of notables. among whom were the Chinese minister in his full costume; Secretary Carlisle, At-torney General Harmon, Admiral Ammen

Dead Body Recovered From the River-A Sunday School Celebration-Other Matters of Interest.

An affray occurred last evening in Caten's alley between two of the colored residents which is apt to result fatally. Leenard Randolph was the victim, and Elsie Tibbs the aggressor. Caton's alley is located in what is known as Frog Island, being the eastern bounds of "Boston," and is between West Market space, 22d street M street and the canal.

The men were in the house of a female friend, where the trouble started. After the men got outside the quarrel led to blows, and Tibbs securing an ax struck Randolph a stunning blow over the head with the blunt end of the weapon, crushwith the blunt end of the weapon, crushing in the entire front of the skull. As soon as the murderous blow was struck Tibbs made his escape, while the people in the alley called on the police to render assistance to Randolph. The injured man was placed in the patrol, and driven rapidly to the Emergency Hospital, where an examination of the injuries showed the skull to be badly fractured, making an almost necessary fatal wound.

This is a savage negro and lived in the Tibbs is a savage negro and lived in the neighborhood. He is well known to the police, and has mained several people in the course of his career. He successfully eluded arrest until this morning about 7 o'clock, when Policemen Maher and Harrison came across him, and, after a lively chase, arrested him and locked him up. He will be held to await the extent of the in-juries of Randolph.

Recovered From the River. The body of Wilbert Handy, the young colored man who was drowned in the Potomac at the foot of 30th street, Sunday evening, as stated in The Star yesterday, was recovered about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon by James Fairbanks, Buck Riggs and William Healer, who were in a boat dragging for the remains. The body was taken to the seventh precinct morgue, and Coroner Hammett notified. Later in the evening the coroner appeared at the sta-tion, but after hearing the testimony of several of Handy's companions at the time of the drowning decided that an inquest was unnecessary, and gave a certificate of death due to accidental drowning. In the evening the body was removed from the morgue to the home of Mr. Murphy, on Olive street, between 27th and 28th streets, a foster father of the deceased, from whose house the funeral will be held.

Tenleytown Baptist Church. The big day of the year came off Sunday at the Baptist Church of Tenleytown. It was Children's day. The little folks were out in large numbers and did well with their recitations, dialogues and singing. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens. The following chil-Gren took part in the interesting exercises: Miss Ananda Hurley, Miss Molile Wendall, Miss Amanda King, Maggie Sparshot, Ella Davis, Virgie Davis, Florence Williams, Annie McCobb, Clara Johnson, Mattie King, Girtie Johnson, Myrtle Phillips, Rhea Pum-phrey, Girtie Jones, Ralph Smith, Amand Queen, Virgie Harding, Eugene Harding, Amy Harding, Mattie Phillips, Bessie How-Amy Harding, Mattle Philips, Bessle How-ser, Annie Wendall, Della Howser, Annie Hunter, Florence Jones, Mamie Riley, Hei-len Berga, Lula Johnson, Elsie McCobb, Ethel Burrows, Bessle Howser and Eugenie Howser. Four new members were received during the month into the church.

Public Not Present. The annual commencement of the junior department of Georgetown University was held last evening in the Gaston Memorial Hall of the university. Heretofore the exercises have been open to the public, but this year a departure from the rule was made and the public excluded. There was a large number of people at the place anxious to gain admittance, and they were anxious to gain admittance, and they were considerably disappointed. The closing exercises were simple and consisted principally in the reading of the marks for the year of the successful students and the awarding of the premiums given to the junior department. The students marched into the hall in a body and no persons outside of the faculty were present.

Notes of Interest. Rev. W. C. Alexander, D.D., pastor of the West Street Presbyterian Church, has Rev. W. C. Alexander, D.D., pastor of returned from a trip to Easton, Pa., where he went to attend the commencement exercises of Lafayette College. At the annual meeting of the alumni of the college Rev. Dr. Alexander was unanimously elected president of the association for the ensuing year. On his trip to Easton Dr. Alexander carried with him the applications of his son, L. R. Alexander, Robert Leech and H. C. McCartney, graduates of the Western High School, who will begin the Western High School, who will begin the course of studies at Lafayette next fall. Dog poisoners have caused the death in the last two nights of a fine shepherd dog belonging to Mr. Edwards of 34th and Q streets, and the big Newfoundland of Mr. Henry Caesar of the same neighborhood. Mr. Edwards' imported English setter narrowly espaned death. His condition was discovered shortly after poison was administered, and an antidote successfully applied. On the night of the Edwards poisoning a man was seen to leave the premises. and chase was given, but he eluded his pur suers. It is believed that the locality is being cleared of dogs that robbery may be more successfully committed.

template rescinding, as has been reported, their contracts with the Central Labor Union and Building Trade Council, made the following report:

"About ten days ago two members of the A charge of arson is standing against Mr. Emil West, proprietor of a men's furnishing store at 432 7th street, he being accused of attempting to set fire, about 8:30 o'clock local federation committee called upon the representatives of the brewers and prolast evening, to the establishment of Eiseman Brothers, southeast corner of 7th and posed a settlement of the trouble existing between the brewers and the local federa-tion and D. A. 66 an agreement would be submitted on Pennsylvania avenue, and there placed under arrest. In the Police Court this to the brewers, and they requested that the brewers meet this joint committee at their next meeting. To this the brewers acceded, morning hearing of the case was postponed and at the meeting last Tuesday the joint committee presented the form of an agree-until Thursday next.

Mr. West was not inclined to leave with the officer at first. He was positively identified by Mr. Rhodes as the man who drop-ped the inflammable material into the area at Eiseman's. The prisoner denied the charge, and later referred all questioners to his attorney, Mr. William A. Cook.

Mr. West is about thirty-five years of age, and resides at 203 G street. He was employed at Auerbach's until going into business for himself about a year ago. It is said that the relations existing between Mr. West and the Eiseman brothers are most pleasant, and no reason is known to exist why the former should attempt to reduce the establishment of the later to ashes. Mr. West was released on $500

Counsel for Mr. West stated to a Star re-porter today that the mere idea of his client being guilty of such an act as the one described is absurd on the face of it. Mr. West is a reputable business man, said the attorney, of excellent standing in the the case may never come to trial.

While looking out of a window of his room of 7th and E streets, about 9 o'clock last evening, Mr. Fred, Rhodes, who is employed as a stenographer in the office of the Southern railway, noticed a man stop at the area on the E street side of Eiseman's, glance about in a suspicious manner, and then drop something between the railing. The man passed down the street a few paces and then returned, just as a blaze sprang up from the area. An alarm of fire was turned in by a passer-by, but Mr. Rhodes hastily grabbed his hat and followed the man, of whom he obtained a good look by the illumination of the fire through a pales and lumination of the fire, through an alley and along several streets to a lodging house, 630 Pennsylvania avenue. The regular weekly meeting of the Central Labor Union was held last evening at Typographical Temple. President Milford

Spohn occupied the chair, and Mr. Joseph F. Torrens was secretary. The chair laid before the union a communication from President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor at Indianapolis in reference to the beer boycott here, of which the following is a copy: "I am in receipt of a communication from the national secretary of the United Brewery Workmen of the United States, in which he says:

Our L. U., No. 118, of Washington, D. C., informs me that it is willing to affiliate itself with the A. F. of L. central body there, if the same will strike the clause from its constitution saying that no bey-cott or other trouble of an affiliated union will be considered except the respective union belongs at least six months to the central body. I believe that such a clause s not only detrimental to the central body but also against common sense, and directly in favor of the employers.

"I kindly ask that your central body will take some action in this matter in order that the best interests of the brewery workmen and the general labor movement may be advanced, and advise me what ac-was unanimously adopted, the delegate was requested to inform the member of Gam-brinus Assembly that if the latter leaves Complications in the Case.

"At this meeting it was ascertained conclusively that the management of a local brewery, which was made 'fair' by the executive committee of D. A. 68 had made no agreement, either written or verbal, and hat the statement made at the time the boycott was removed, and reiterated time and again with great persistency since that date, that this brewery was taken from the unfair list because of an agreement satisfactory to Gambrinus Assembly, was ascertained to be false. The company own-ing the brewery did, however, prepare an greement to be submitted to the commitee which it was willing to sign. The other prewers also prepared an agreement which embodied essentially the same provisions This agreement recognizes Gambrinus Assembly, leaves the employes at liberty to join any organization they desire, gives preference in employment of members of Gambrinus Assembly, but will not rescind the contracts made with the other organi-zations, and will abide by them in letter and in spirit.

"A copy of this agreement has been sub mitted to the joint committee of the local federation and D. A. 66, and the brewers have been asked to meet the committee again. In answer the representatives of the brewers in substance replied that their proposition was their ultimatum, and that if the committee could agree to its terms
